

Courier: We are Desperate and Without Help: The Plight of Rohingya in Myanmar; Peace at Risk in Burundi - Again: Beyond the Political Solution

The Stanley Foundation

15 August 2016

The Stanley Foundation just released its Summer 2016 issue of the Courier. This edition highlights the plight of the Rohingya people and Burma's potential genocide, as well as the ongoing violence and conflict in Burundi. The issue also discusses strengthening nuclear security in a post-summit world and the Paris Agreement's plans to minimize the global warming temperature.

To read the full issue, please click here .