

Statement by Adama Dieng, Special Adviser on the Prevention of Genocide, on the situation in the Central African Republic

13 October, 2017

On 13 October, the United Nations Special Adviser on the Prevention of Genocide, Adama Dieng, released a statement on the situation in the Central African Republic after a recent visit to the country.

Read the statement here .