

▣ Towards a national approach to atrocities: A response to growing scrutiny

Protection Approaches

14 May 2018

On 14 May, Protection Approaches released a policy briefing in order to address growing calls in the UK to have a more defined approach to mass atrocity prediction, prevention, and response mechanisms. The briefing sees developing a strategy towards mass atrocities both as a humanitarian as well as a national security issue.

To read the full policy brief, please click here .