

□ Letter to UK Foreign Secretary on Atrocity Prevention

10 December 2019

To mark the 70th Anniversary of the Genocide Convention, UK civil society organizations issued a joint letter to the Foreign Office acknowledging the steps the government has taken to prioritize mass atrocity prevention. In spite of the positive steps taken, the signatories urged the Office to make its prevention work more known and keep the Responsibility to Protect at its core of its Foreign Affairs policies, as previously indicated.
