

Statements on RtoP at the 64th Session General Debate

View all excerpted statements in a word document.

Nation	Statements for GA Debate
UN SG Ban Ki-moon	This Assembly also reaffirmed the responsibility to protect
Andorra	The Responsibility to Protect populations against genocide
Armenia	We regard the principles of Prevention of Genocide as Belgium	National sovereignty implies responsibility. Belgium will
Benin	We need a United Nations capable to rise to the challenge
Bulgaria	... We appreciate the Secretary-General's report entitled
Comoros	It would also be good to provide a better definition of the Democratic Republic of the Congo	With respect to the responsibility to protect, we welcome
Finland	In conflict situations, the civilian population needs protection
Guatemala	Further, in the context of the United Nations we have seen
Holy See	...there is a strongly felt need, even in the midst of a global
Hungary	Hungary will play its part in multilateral efforts aimed at
Ireland	At the 2005 World Summit, this Assembly endorsed the
Latvia	At the World Summit of 2005 the concept of the Responsibility
Lesotho	The Rwanda genocide is still fresh in our minds. It is our
Monaco	In this regard, I wish to reiterate the support of my country
Montenegro	We emphasize the crucial importance of the debate on
Niger	[RtoP] must be clearly defined and marked out like the
New Zealand	All too often, the UN, has however, found itself unable Papua New Guinea	Furthermore, the concept of the "Responsibility to Protect
Romania	Another significant decision taken in the 2005 Outcome
Slovakia	Among the key tools that the United Nations has at its disposal

Slovenia

The failures to protect human beings from mass atrocities

Sweden

(on behalf of the European Union) let war crimes, genocide, or crimes against humanity go un