

R2PCS welcomes the Security Council's recognition of Member States' commitment to the Responsibility to Protect. We continue to call for better mechanisms to ensure that Members of the Security Council realize their commitment to protect vulnerable populations, including Security Council working methods reform.

Related Documents

R2P CS background and analysis on the resolution

Civil Society letter to the Security Council calling for R2P in the resolution on the protection of civilians in armed conflict \(PDF\)

Security Council Resolution 1674 on the Protection of Civilians in Armed Conflict \(PDF\)

Draft resolution on the Protection of Civilians in Armed Conflict \(PDF\)

Secretary-Generals report on the protection of civilians in armed conflict \(2005\) \(PDF\)

Secretary-General's report on the protection of civilians in armed conflict \(2001\) \(PDF\)

Security Council resolution 1296 \(2000\) \(PDF\)

Security Council resolution 1265 \(1999\) \(PDF\)