in Holocaust, Genocide and Human Rights Studies

8 April 2013, 12:00 pm

Cardozo
School of Law, 55 Fifth Avenue, Room 1008, New York

Join the Program in Holocaust, Genocide, and Human Rights Studies for this year's final lunchtime lecture, taking place on Holocaust Remembrance Day, entitled, "Three Who Resisted in Hitler's Europe: What Lawyers Today Need to Learn from the Holocaust".

Professor Richard Weisberg will lead a discussion about some notable individuals who resisted the Nazi regime and the critical lessons that modern human rights lawyers should glean from their resistance and the Holocaust on the whole.

Lunch will be served.
