

ICRtoP Report from first Global Conference for Civil Society on the Responsibility to Protect

On 20 June 2013, the International Coalition for the Responsibility to Protect (ICRtoP) held its first global civil society conference on the Responsibility to Protect norm (RtoP, R2P) in Istanbul, Turkey. Over 60 organizations - both ICRtoP

members

and other interested groups – from over 25 countries and working in a range of sectors participated in the conference to share and exchange strategies for advancing RtoP and mass atrocities prevention around the world.

A final report is available

here

.