

Statement by the Special Adviser on the Prevention of Genocide, Adama Dieng, on the situation in the Kingdom of Bahrain

UN Office of the Special Adviser for the Prevention of Genocide

22 June 2016

Responding to worrying developments such as the revocation of citizenship for over 250 individuals since July 2014, including most recently Sheikh Issa Qassem, among other human rights violations, Mr. Dieng released a statement expressing concern for the situation and calling in the government to recommit to national dialogue.

See full statement here .