

Statement on Deteriorating Situation in Burundi

Global Centre for the Responsibility to Protect 6 November 2015 The Global Centre for the Responsibility to Protect released a statement on the deteriorating security situation in Burundi and the imminent threat of mass atrocities. The Global Centre recommend in the statement that the AU, UN and individual states immediately impose sanctions on any individuals deemed responsible for inciting violence, participating in targeted killings, and/or undermining the Arusha Peace Agreement.

To read the statement in full, click here