Despite the world's numerous pledges to never again sit idle in the face of human suffering from atrocity crimes, countless people throughout the world are at risk of or are experiencing genocide, war crimes, crimes against humanity, and ethnic cleansing.

The International Coalition for the Responsibility to Protect (ICRtoP) is the only global network of civil society organizations that works to protect populations from atrocities. Donate to the ICRtoP today and help us prevent and respond to atrocity crimes worldwide.
