

UN Office of the Special Adviser on the Prevention of Genocide
24 August 2016

On 24 August, the Special Adviser on the Prevention of Genocide, Adama Dieng, released a statement in response to inflammatory statements made by public officials in Burundi, expressing his concern that they could constitute an incitement to violence.

See the full statement here .