

On August 30, the United Nations Special Advisor on Prevention of Genocide, Adama Dieng, released a statement on the current situation in Raqqa, Syria.

Read the statement here