The Genocide at a Glance

Approximately

8,000

were murdered in just 8 days;

6,930

have been identified;

1,000

are still missing.

Population in July 1995

42,000

Refugees

In April 1996

36,000

had returned home.

Failure to Protect

March 3 - April 1998

The UN failed to take action to prevent Srebrenica from becoming a battle zone.

Carefully Orchestrated Genocide

April 1998

The massacre was meticulously planned by NVO leadership, led by General Ratko Mladic.

Justice & Accountability for the Victims

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Indictment</th>
<th>Acquittal</th>
<th>Conviction</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>20</td>
<td>12</td>
<td>15</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Remembrance and Responsibility

The Srebrenica Genocide was a tragic event in the history of Bosnia and Herzegovina. It is remembered as a symbol of the failures of the international community to protect civilians from mass atrocities.

Note: The information on this page is based on theoke and the Srebrenica Inquiry Commission Report. For more detailed information, please refer to the official reports and sources cited in the bibliography.